"Jesus, remember me."

We probably all know how it feels to let down those we love, to harm others, betray them even. How do we respond to those dark realities of human life? A first step is simply to admit the hurt we have caused. Without attempting a sincere apology, there can be no forgiveness, no reconciliation, no healing. The person who has caused hurt needs to accept responsibility for what they have done. Secondly, genuine remorse will always be expressed most credibly by actions rather than by words. Learning from our mistake - actually making a change in our behaviour - will show the seriousness of our remorse. Finally, it's important in time to be able to look beyond the mistake - not to wallow in it, get stuck in an endless cycle of blame, guilt and self-recrimination. The alternative is to live in endless depression, even despair.

St Luke's account of the final hours of Jesus' life offers insight into how we can move beyond our failures and betrayals to new life. One poignant detail, found only in Luke, is that it is at the very moment that the cock crows, as Peter is denying knowing Jesus a third time, that the Lord turns and looks straight at Peter. Whatever Peter sees in Jesus' eyes, it makes Peter come to his senses. He weeps tears of remorse. He acknowledges the harm he has done. After the resurrection, Jesus helps Peter move on. At the lakeside he asks Peter three times if he loves him. And each time Peter affirms his love, the Lord entrusts him with a task: feed my sheep, care for my little ones. Actions speak louder than words. Peter will do as the Lord asks.

In another detail found only in Luke, we meet the good thief - traditionally known as Dismas. He owns his guilt and accepts responsibility for his actions, and so escapes the bitterness and anger of the other criminal hanging beside Jesus. Dismas clings to his hope for a future, for redemption: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." In so doing, he is able to embrace forgiveness and the promise of new life.

A final detail that Luke alone relates is that in the middle of the Last Supper, the disciples squabble about who is the greatest. It is as if they have learnt nothing from Jesus during the last three years. Jesus reminds them where true greatness lies: service. Self-giving love - a genuine conversion of heart, mind and behaviour - is the antidote to the temptation of asserting ourselves at the expense of others. It is the antithesis of our very human tendency to inflict damage and hurt.

Prayers for the Sick

Thank you for your heartfelt prayers for all those who are sick. We pray especially for Brian Fury, Justine Hocking, William Walton, Sabina Mason, Dominic Keogh, Brian Bickle, Rita Lawless and Bishop Christopher Budd at this time. (If you would like to include a close family member in the prayers for the sick then please email the Parish Office.)

COVID - Guidelines - UPDATE

While we are moving back to normal we still request face masks to be worn during our Masses and when inside and to sanitise when entering. This is out of a sense of support to those who are still fearful, are being cautious and also recognises that some of our parishioners have chosen not to be vaccinated. I'm sure you will appreciate we are keen to ensure that our Church is a place where people feel safe to gather for worship. Thank you for your ongoing support and for your selflessness with this matter.

Holy Week Stations of the Cross

Please note that in Holy Week we will endeavour to celebrate Stations of the Cross in all three of our Churches. Newquay on Tuesday at 7pm, St. Agnes on Wednesday at 7pm on Perranporth on Friday at 7pm. These Stations will be based on the film the Passion of Christ. We hope to see as many people there as it is an ideal way to focus our thoughts and feelings at this special time in the church's year. Thank you.

Parish Pastoral Councils

Given the rich diversity within our extended parish but, nevertheless, seeking to move forward, we are looking at establishing a local Pastoral Council in each of our communities. One of the main focuses, in Perranporth and St Agnes, will be looking at the buildings (including safeguarding their future) and what we, as a community, would like to see taking place including social gatherings as well as church services etc. This will be building on what we have undertaken already in Newquay.

If you have not already made your interest known to Fr Martin then please speak with him or with the Parish Office. Thank you again for your support with this. Together we can continue to make a difference in the lives of the communities we serve.

Health and Safety Review

We have undertaken Health and Safety reviews now in Newquay, Perranporth and St Agnes. These were undertaken by the Diocese's new Health & Safety rep and included a Fire Risk assessment. In carrying out this review it has come to light that we are in need of First Aiders. If you have any experience in this area please pass on your details to the Parish Office. There were various issues raised and we aim to look at these within the framework of the new Parish Councils. Thank you again for your support.

Gift Aid & Planned Giving Envelopes

While we have a small number of Gift Aid Envelopes we would encourage as many parishioners who give in this way to consider giving by Standing Order. Given how many of our banks have now closed and the challenges associated with dealing with cash, it makes our admin very much easier and less time consuming. Thank you to those who already give this way.

Digital Toolkit Programme

Our Parish has been invited to partake in the Pilot phase of the above programme for a period of six months. We are looking for a volunteer, ideally a young school leaver or indeed anyone wishing to improve their digital communication skills, to become a "digital champion". The role will entail some learning on how to leverage best practices in reaching out to parishioners, whether it be via electronic newsletters or website improvement techniques. If you are interested in this proposal, please speak to Fr. Martin or Jodie for more information.

Palm Sunday

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

Responsorial Psalm:

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

Gospel Acclamation:

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Christ was humbler yet,

even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all names.

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Gospel: Luke 19:28-40

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, ...who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, (All bow) suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.
