Reading and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

First reading: Wisdom 18:6-9 That night of our liberation was made known beforehand to our fathers, so that they might rejoice in sure knowledge of the oaths in which they trusted. The deliverance of the righteous and the destruction of their enemies were expected by your people. For by the same means by which you punished our enemies you called us to yourself and glorified us. For in secret the holy children of good people offered sacrifices and with one accord agreed to the divine law, that the saints would share alike the same things, both blessings and dangers; and already they were singing the praises of the fathers.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 33(32):1,12. 18-19. 20, 22. 12b

Response: Blessed the people the LORD has chosen as his heritage.

Second reading: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19 Brothers and Sisters: Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city.

By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, 'Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.' He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. Stay awake and be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, 'Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service, and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. If he comes in the second watch, or in the third, and finds them awake, blessed are those servants! But know this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have left his house to be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Communion Antiphon: O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.

Parish BBQ

We had a fabulous turnout at the last BBQ and we would ask you to join us again for the next one at Most Holy Trinity, Newquay on Friday 22nd August at 6.00pm. Please let Jodie know if you have any special dietary requirements.

We would appreciate your food contributions once again, but this time we would ask you to let Jodie know what you intend to bring on the night. The food contributions were outstanding last time, but we do not want your efforts and contributions to go to waste due to having duplicate dishes or too many desserts etc.

Also, please let Jodie know if you are able to help in anyway on the evening either serving food, serving drinks, helping in the kitchen, or clearing up as we go. Any help would be very much appreciated. Thank you.

Patricia Hinder RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Patricia Hinder who died recently, may she rest in peace and we remember her family in our prayers. Details of her funeral will follow shortly.
