Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon: Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

First reading: 1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'O Lord,' he said 'I have had enough. Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

Responsorial Psalm 33(34):2-9

Response: Taste and see that the Lord is good.

Second reading: Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ. Try, then, to imitate God as children of his that he loves and follow Christ loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 6:41-51

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets: They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me. Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father. I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life. 'I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die. I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Communion Antiphon: O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.

Message from Fr. Mark Skelton

Being conscious that you would all have heard by now of my appointment I thought it would be a lovely opportunity for me to say a simple hello to you all. Having ministered in Cornwall in the two parishes of Helston and Truro 20 years ago, I was absolutely thrilled when Canon Paul asked me to become your Parish Priest and return across the Tamar.

The details of exactly when I shall be arriving have yet to be ironed out but I would hope my first weekend with you all will be Sept 14th/15th. Suffice it to say I am really looking forward to getting to know you all in the years ahead and my prayer is that we will be a source of God's Grace and Joy to each other. Please pray for me as I prepare to join you and, even more importantly, please pray for me as I enter into the nightmare that is packing.

Weekday Masses

Please note that Fr. David Smolira is celebrating additional Masses on Mondays and Fridays at 9.30am throughout the summer at Most Holy Trinity Church, Newquay. All welcome.

Prayer for Peace

Lord, Prince of Peace,
We appeal to your boundless love and mercy.

In the face of violence and turmoil in our country, strengthen our resolve to work for reconciliation and peace within our communities.

Help us not to harden our hearts, to redouble our efforts to welcome the stranger and to reach out to those in need.
Change the hearts and minds of those who seek to fuel unrest and bring us all to live in your kingdom of justice, peace and love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Holy Day of Obligation)

The following Masses will be held on Thursday 15th August 2024.
11.00 am - Christ the King, Perranporth
7.00 pm - Most Holy Trinity, Newquay

Boardmasters Festival 7th-11th August

Our car park is full to capacity most of the time during the Summer months and we are expecting the same when Fistril Beach transforms into a surf village for the pro-surf competitions etc, on the above dates. Our car park will be manned on Sunday morning, 11th August from 8.00am until 10.30am to enable our Parishioners to attend Mass. Please note that we cannot do the same for the Saturday evening Mass at 6.00pm and the car park may become very busy. Please allow extra time for your travel and parking.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £28.00.
The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.
