The Baptism of the Lord Readings and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: After the Lord was baptized, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

First reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 Thus says the LORD: Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.

‘I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.’

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 29(28):1-2. 3ac-4. 3b, 9b-10. r11b

Response: The LORD will bless his people with peace.

Second reading: Acts 10:34-38 In those days: Peter opened his mouth and said: ‘Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all — you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.’

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered: ‘This is my beloved Son; listen to him’. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptised by him. John would have prevented him, saying, ‘I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?’ But Jesus answered him, ‘Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness.’ Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptised, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’

Communion Antiphon: Behold the One of whom John said: I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God.

Newquay Food Bank

We continue to collect for our local food bank in Newquay. Please place all food items in the box under the First Aid Kit. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year. £84.65

Flowers—Donation Box

Thank you for your donations of £68.40. Your generous support will help towards the flowers/displays in all three of our Churches. Thank you.

Gift Aid/Standing Orders

We have now phased out the Gift Aid Envelopes and would encourage you to give by Standing Order, which can also be gift aided. Thank you. If you are Gift Aided and currently do give by Standing order and have changed your address, then please make sure we have your up to date details.

Parish Census Forms

Under GDPR Legislation we must continue to ensure that we always follow good practice when it comes to safeguarding your personal information. If you have not recently completed a Parish Census Form, please collect one from the office, or at the back of each church and return it Jodie as soon as possible so that we can update our records. Thank you.

First Holy Communion Preparation

We are looking forward to celebrating this lovely journey as a parish. Fr Mark and the catechists are planning to hold 6 two hour sessions with the children on a Saturday morning at Most Holy Trinity beginning 17th January at 10.00am. This will involve all sorts of different activities and discussions helping us all to understand more and more how much Jesus loves us and wants to be with us.

Confirmation Preparation

There will also be Confirmation in the parish this year too. As soon as Bishop Nicholas confirms the date of the Confirmation to take place here in Newquay, we will then let you know when the preparation classes will commence. Thank you.
