Fourth Sunday of Easter Readings and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

First reading: Acts 13:14, 43b-52 In those days: Paul and Barnabas went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. Many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, as they spoke with them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. The next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to contradict what was spoken by Paul, reviling him. And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, 'It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth." ' And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region. But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. But they shook off the dust from their feet against them and went to Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 100(99):1-2. 3. 5. R3c

Response: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Second reading: Revelation 7:9, 13a, 14b-17 I, John, looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, 'These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.'

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. I am the good shepherd, says the Lord. I know my sheep and my own know me. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus said, 'My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one.'

Communion Antiphon: The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

Evangelisation

The heart of the Church's Mission

In the light of the death of Pope Francis, we recall that his first major encyclical to the Church was on the necessity to proclaim the Gospel and the mission to evangelise. The aim of this day is to explore the nature of this mission and how we can put it into practice in our daily lives. This day will be of particular interest to all who are already endeavouring to share their faith or who would like to know how to get started. This event will be held at Buckfast Abbey conference centre on Saturday 17th May 10am-3pm. (Dart View Room 4). There is an opportunity to go to the Abbey mass at noon. Booking is essential and needs to be done through plymouth-crownhill@prcdtr.org.uk Enquiries: 01752 701660. We look forward to seeing you at this inspiring day

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £28.00. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

Annual Leave

Fr. Brian Stevens will be on annual leave from 3rd May – 17th May. There will be no Mass at Most Holy Trinity Church on Wednesdays at 10.00am or on Sunday mornings at 8.30am until Fr. Brian returns. Please see the Website and Newsletters for all other Mass times.

Jubilee Year 2025 - Pilgrims of Hope

Pope Francis has declared the year 2025 as a Jubilee Year. During the Jubilee Year you are invited to visit designated churches in our Diocese. This is an opportunity for us all to journey together as Pilgrims of Hope. Please collect/or request a Passport from the Parish Office for more information. These passports have been designed by the Diocese and they will be stamped at each of the designated four churches you visit.

We will visit the Churches below on the following dates. Transport will be provided for a small donation. If you are interested, please let Jodie know in the office.

Plymouth - 15th July

Launceston - 19th September

Crediton - October (to be confirmed)

Finance Meeting

Our next Finance meeting will be held in the hall at Most Holy Trinity on Friday 16th May at 11.30am. Therefore, there will be no teas and coffees that morning for our Parishioners after Mass and Adoration.
