Readings and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

First reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17 In those days: Naaman the Syrian went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of Elisha, the man of God, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and he came and stood before him. And he said, 'Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; so accept now a present from your servant.' But Elisha said, 'As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none.' And Naaman urged Elisha to take it, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'If not, please let there be given to your servant two mule-loads of earth, for from now on your servant will not offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god but the LORD.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 98(97):1. 2-3b. 3c-4. r1a

Response: The LORD has shown his salvation to the nations.

Second reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13 Beloved: Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound! Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful — for he cannot deny himself.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19 On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.' When he saw them he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, 'Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' And he said to him, 'Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well.'

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

First Holy Communion Preparation

Having not had the First Holy Communion Preparation last year we are looking forward to celebrating this lovely journey as a parish. Fr Mark and the catechists are planning to hold 6 two hour sessions with the children on a Saturday morning beginning in January. This will involve all sorts of different activities and discussions helping us all to understand more and more how much Jesus loves us and wants to be with us. There will be a meeting on Tuesday 11th November at 6pm for the parents of those children who are hoping to be on the journey. More details will be shared then. See you there. There will also be Confirmation in the parish next year. This too will begin in January, and we plan to meet on a Friday evening, further details to follow soon.

CAFOD - Harvest Family Fast Day
