The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated before or after Mass, or on request.

Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon: If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

First reading.: Wisdom 7:7-11 I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

Responsorial Psalm: 89(90):12-17 Response: Fill us with your love so that we may rejoice.

Second reading: Hebrews 4:12-13 The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom to mere children. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:17-27 Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth. Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £43.30. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

Deanery Meeting

The Deanery Meeting is on the Tuesday 29th October at Most Holy Trinity. We need a few volunteers to come forward to help serve the lunch from approximately 12.30pm -1.30pm. Please let Jim Pickup or Jodie in the Parish Office know if you are available to help. Thank you.

CAFOD

Thank you for your support and generous donations for CAFOD Family Fast Day. The total amount donated by the Parish was £505.50. Thank you.

Data Protection Issues and GDPR

Please don't be offended if we, as a Parish, cannot share information with you when asked, for example, an address or telephone number, etc. We are simply not permitted to share personal information and respect everyone's right to privacy.

Furthermore, GDPR applies to volunteers in the same way as any other individual. In other words, volunteers may be data processors, dealing with other people's personal data, and they will also, be data subjects because you process personal information. Anyone who volunteers will, therefore, need to understand the church's policies and procedures and the importance of data protection, data security and confidentiality. Thank you for your continued support.

Weekday Masses

Fr. Mark will be introducing additional weekday Masses in all three churches from next week. Please see Mass times for more details.

World Mission Sunday
Second Collection

Please note that there will be a second collection next weekend 19th/20th October for World Mission Sunday. Thank you for your support.
