Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Reading and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

An excellent wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy. Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 128(127):1-2. 3. 4-5. r1a

Response: Blessed are all who fear the LORD.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, 'There is peace and security', then sudden destruction will come upon them as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers and sisters, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia.Abide in me, and I in you, says the Lord. Whoever abides in me bears much fruit. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus told his disciples this parable, 'The kingdom of heaven will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. 'Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, "Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master." '

Communion Antiphon: To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

Perranzabuloe/Callestick
Thursday 19th November - 12.00pm

First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion

For those parents and carers who are hoping for their children to celebrate these wonderful sacraments for the first time in the coming year, there will be an initial meeting to discuss the outline of the programme at 6pm on November 20th. The sessions themselves will begin in January but this will be an opportunity to find out a bit more about the programme as at that meeting all the details will be available. This will give you a few weeks, as a family, to decide whether you feel ready to make the commitment.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £119.36. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

A Feast for all Peoples

As we prepare to set up our PPC in the Spring we are going to take a few weeks to reflect together upon the idea of 'Synodality'. Pope Leo says 'we want to be a synodal Church, a Church that walks, a Church that always seeks peace and that always tries to be close especially to those who suffer'. Synodality is about relationship, about authentic practices of listening and encounter even with those with whom we disagree or have little in common.

Synod comes from the Greek meaning 'to walk together'. It seeks ongoing conversion through shared encounter, listening, courageous speaking and discernment. Hopefully in the coming 5 sessions (see below) we will, by using the conversations in the Spirit and Lectio Divina learn more about ourselves, each other and God's plans for our parish family.
