Readings and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me. For you are my rock, my stronghold! Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

First reading.: Jeremiah 17:5-8 Thus says the LORD: 'Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. 'Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 1:1-2. 3. 4, 6. R Psalm 40(39):5a

Response: Blessed the man who has placed his trust in the LORD.

Second reading: 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20 Brothers and Sisters: If Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia.

Rejoice and leap for joy, says the Lord, for behold, your reward is great in heaven. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: 'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, and revile you, and spurn your name as evil on account of the Son of Man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you shall be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep. Woe to you, when all people speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets.'

Communion Antiphon: They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them; they were not disappointed in what they craved.

Racial Justice Sunday

The theme for the 30th anniversary of Racial Justice Sunday in this Jubilee year: "Pilgrims of Hope: Our Journey Together Towards Racial Justice", invites Catholics across England and Wales to reflect on the collective journey towards racial justice in our schools, parishes and the wider society.

Bishop Paul McAleenan, Lead Bishop for Racial Justice, said: "This year, we invite the Catholic community to reflect on the journey towards racial justice - past, present and future - by asking: 'How far have we come, where are we now and what remains to be achieved?'"

Just as pilgrims must prepare for their journey and be properly equipped, we, too, need all that is necessary to propel us towards racial justice - the mind of Christ; examination of our progress and of the challenges that remain; a willingness to learn from one another together; and prayers for and on the journey."

Let us be Pilgrims of Hope in our parishes as we welcome newcomers and address challenges and opportunities and be Pilgrims of Hope towards racial justice in society, by advocating for Racial Justice where we live. Please contact Caritas Diocese of Plymouth if you would like to hold a parish reflection on racial justice: caritas@prcdtr.org.uk

Saint of the Week

St Elias & Companions

St Elias and four other companions; St Daniel, St Isaiah, St Samuel and St Jeremiah, were Egyptian martyrs who suffered torture after returning from comforting fellow Christians in captivity during Maximus' persecution era. Upon their return, they were arrested at the gates of Caesarea, Palestine, and forced into confession, where they did not denounce their faith. They identified themselves by their baptismal names and their country as 'Jerusalem' which had been renamed at the time. They were condemned to death for their commitment to the Lord, and Christians heavenly Jerusalem.
