Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon: The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First reading: Daniel 12:1-3 'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

Responsorial Psalm: 15(16):5,8-11 Response: Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

Second reading: Hebrews 10:11-14,18 All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. He, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place forever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

Gospel: Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

Communion Antiphon. To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

Safeguarding Sunday—17th November

On Sunday 17th November, we will join other churches across the UK to highlight the importance of protecting children, young people and adults at risk. Safeguarding Sunday is also an opportunity to celebrate those who work behind the scenes to make our church a safer place for all. The theme for this year is 'Let's talk about it'. It's a time to have open and honest conversations about what we have got wrong and what we are getting right. It's also an opportunity to talk about how we can work together to prevent abuse and create a world where every child and adult can feel and be safe

*Compassionate God, our refuge and strength, defender of the weak, the weary, and the oppressed, we come to you with humble and thankful hearts. As your children, you call us to be like you, to speak up for the rights of all who are vulnerable. Help us as we strive to be a place of safety for all, May we listen to those who are hurting, learn from Jesus' example, and love one another as you first loved us.
Amen.*

Liturgy of remembering

On Friday 29th November at 7pm there will be a liturgy in the Parish Hall in Newquay to pray for those who have died, using scripture, poetry, music and symbol. We will remember and rejoice, grieve and give thanks. Please feel free to come along to reflect in this more informal manner on the love the Father shares with us from so many people and in so many ways.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £93.00. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St Germaine Cousin, November 17th Intention prayer for Victims and Survivors of Child physical abuse and neglect

Known as a 'safeguarding saint', St Germaine Cousin was a French shepherdess who was recognised for her humility, piety and true devotion to God. She came into the world with great suffering from disease, the loss of her mother as an infant, and at the hand of her stepmother. In her poverty she still managed to help feed those in the same situation as her. Her gift of God's presence meant her life was full of light and blessing. She is the patron saint of Child abuse victims, disability, and the abandoned.
