Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon: Turn your eyes, O God, our shield; and look on the face of your anointed one; one day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

First reading: Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built herself a house, she has erected her seven pillars, she has slaughtered her beasts, prepared her wine, she has laid her table. She has despatched her maidservants and proclaimed from the city's heights: 'Who is ignorant? Let him step this way.' To the fool she says, 'Come and eat my bread, drink the wine I have prepared! Leave your folly and you will live, walk in the ways of perception.'

Responsorial Psalm 33(34):2-3,10-15

Response: Taste and see that the Lord is good.

Second reading: Ephesians 5:15-20

Be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people. This may be a wicked age, but you redeem it. And do not be thoughtless but recognise what is the will of the Lord. Do not drug yourselves with wine, this is simply dissipation; be filled with the Spirit. Sing the words and tunes of the psalms and hymns when you are together, and go on singing and chanting to the Lord in your hearts, so that always and everywhere you are giving thanks to God who is our Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Word was made flesh and lived among us: to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him. As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me. This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

Communion Antiphon: With the Lord there is mercy; in him is plentiful redemption.

Message from Fr. Mark Skelton

Being conscious that you would all have heard by now of my appointment I thought it would be a lovely opportunity for me to say a simple hello to you all. Having ministered in Cornwall in the two parishes of Helston and Truro 20 years ago, I was absolutely thrilled when Canon Paul asked me to become your Parish Priest and return across the Tamar.

The details of exactly when I shall be arriving have yet to be ironed out but I would hope my first weekend with you all will be Sept 14th/15th. Suffice it to say I am really looking forward to getting to know you all in the years ahead and my prayer is that we will be a source of God's Grace and Joy to each other. Please pray for me as I prepare to join you and, even more importantly, please pray for me as I enter into the nightmare that is packing.

Weekday Masses

Please note that Fr. David Smolira is celebrating additional Masses on Mondays and Fridays at 9.30am throughout the summer at Most Holy Trinity Church, Newquay. All welcome.

Prayer for Peace

Lord, Prince of Peace,
We appeal to your boundless
love and mercy.

In the face of violence and turmoil in our country, strengthen our resolve to work for reconciliation and peace within our communities.

Help us not to harden our hearts, to redouble our efforts to welcome the stranger and to reach out to those in need. Change the hearts and minds of those who seek to fuel unrest and bring us all to live in your kingdom of justice, peace and love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £21.70. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

Missio Boxes

Thank you to those who continue to donate to Missio via the red boxes - a total of £165.56 has been counted and a cheque has been forwarded direct to them. Please continue to hand your red boxes into the parish office for counting and distribution of funds. Thank you.
