Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First reading: Exodus 17:8-13 In those days: Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim. So Moses said to Joshua, 'Choose for us men, and go out and fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.' So Joshua did as Moses told him, and fought with Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed, and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed. But Moses' hands grew weary, so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it, while Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side. So his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. And Joshua overwhelmed Amalek and his people with the sword.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 121(120):1-2. 3-4. 5-6. 7-8. r cf. 2

Response: Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Second reading: 2 Timothy 3:14-4:2 Beloved: Continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work. I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. The word of God is living and active, discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus told his disciples a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, "Give me justice against my adversary." For a while he refused, but afterwards he said to himself, "Though I neither fear God nor respect man, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming." ' And the Lord said, 'Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

Communion Antiphon: Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Parish Annual General Meeting

We will have our statutory AGM for Newquay, Perranporth and St. Agnes in Most Holy Trinity's Church Hall on Friday 24th October at 7pm. This is your opportunity for us to come together to talk about future Parish activities and groups, as well as the finances relating to your Parish. Please note that there will be Mass just before the meeting at 6.00pm.

First Holy Communion Preparation

Having not had the First Holy Communion Preparation last year we are looking forward to celebrating this lovely journey as a parish. Fr Mark and the catechists are planning to hold 6 two hour sessions with the children on a Saturday morning beginning in January. This will involve all sorts of different activities and discussions helping us all to understand more and more how much Jesus loves us and wants to be with us. There will be a meeting on Tuesday 11th November at 6pm for the parents of those children who are hoping to be on the journey. More details will be shared then. See you there. There will also be Confirmation in the parish next year. This too will begin in January, and we plan to meet on a Friday evening, further details to follow soon.

CAFOD - Harvest Family Fast Day
