First Sunday of Advent Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon:

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

First reading.: Jeremiah 33:14-16

See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I am going to fulfil the promise I made to the House of Israel and the House of Judah:

‘In those days and at that time, I will make a virtuous Branch grow for David, who shall practise honesty and integrity in the land. In those days Judah shall be saved and Israel shall dwell in confidence. And this is the name the city will be called: The-Lord-our-integrity.’

Responsorial Psalm: 24(25):4-5,8-9,10,14 Response: To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Second reading: 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2

May the Lord be generous in increasing your love and make you love one another and the whole human race as much as we love you. And may he so confirm your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless in the sight of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus Christ comes with all his saints. Finally, brothers, we urge you and appeal to you in the Lord Jesus to make more and more progress in the kind of life that you are meant to live: the life that God wants, as you learnt from us, and as you are already living it. You have not forgotten the instructions we gave you on the authority of the Lord Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Let us see, O Lord, your mercy and give us your saving help. Alleluia!

Gospel: Jesus said to his disciples: ‘There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; on earth nations in agony, bewildered by the clamour of the ocean and its waves; men dying of fear as they await what menaces the world, for the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand erect, hold your heads high, because your liberation is near at hand. ‘Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day will be sprung on you suddenly, like a trap. For it will come down on every living man on the face of the earth. Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to survive all that is going to happen, and to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.’

Communion Antiphon: The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.

Missio Boxes

Thank you to those who continue to donate to Missio. Please hand your red boxes into the parish office for counting and distribution of funds. We thank you for your kind support.

Data Protection Issues & GDPR

Please don’t be offended if we, as a Parish, cannot share information with you when asked, for example, an address or telephone number, etc. We are simply not permitted to share personal information and respect everyone’s right to privacy.

Furthermore, GDPR applies to volunteers in the same way as any other individual. In other words, volunteers may be data processors, dealing with other people’s personal data, and they will also, be data subjects because you process personal information. Anyone who volunteers will, therefore, need to understand the church’s policies and procedures and the importance of data protection, data security and confidentiality. Thank you for your continued support.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St Edmund Campion- December 1st
Intention Prayer
Strength and Courage

An English Jesuit martyred during the protestant government of Queen Elizabeth I, St Edmund Campion was a Catholic bookseller teaching at Oxford when he felt called Roman Catholicism. In 1580, he was sent by the Jesuits to minister to the Catholics of England despite being strictly forbidden. He was arrested by a spy in 1581 and charged for treason. Under cruel torture he still refused to denounce his faith to the Catholic Church. St Edmund Campion was canonised for his great courage by Pope Paul VI in 1970.
