“Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching.”

There is a place in Lourdes, called Cité Saint-Pierre, sometimes wrongly called the City of the Poor, which provides free or cheap accommodation for those who cannot stay in the expensive hotels. It fundraises by giving tours of the place, usually conducted by seminarians. When visitors arrive, the bus stops beside two rocks and the visitors are asked to go between the two rocks, to be greeted by a statue of Our Lady with arms open wide. The symbolic meaning is that each visitor is greeted by Our Lady as an individual. It's a nice idea, though on one occasion a tour guide witnessed visitors rushing towards the rocks and some people getting jammed between the two rocks. So much for the theory. Still, it makes a valid point. We come to salvation as individuals, and each of us enters into the kingdom as an individual.

that building seems easy. Yet we would probably only be visiting that place for a short time. To really enter a building, that is to really belong to that place, needs more than a grand entrance. We need to find some indication that this is a place we belong to, a place that has been prepared for us. Perhaps this is behind the idea of the narrow door that Jesus asks us to try to enter through. How narrow is it? Just as narrow as we are, because it fits us and no one else.

What exactly that doorway means in our own lives is something we have to discover for ourselves. It probably means accepting some sort of sacrifice in our lives. Our lives are limited, and that is as it should be. We waste a lot of time and energy thinking of the things we do not have and haven't done, and miss what is laid out before us. This is the way we are to go. The great doorway, the magnificent arch we might want to walk through, can give us the delusion that we are great, as the doorway is great. The small way teaches us humility, but it also shows us that we enter the kingdom through a doorway shaped by God just for us.

When we come to some magnificent building, with a wide, impressive doorway, entry into

Welcome

We would like to welcome everyone during this holiday time who are visiting. We thank you for joining us in our Eucharistic celebrations and pray that you all have a peaceful and refreshing break while with us.

Prayers for the Sick

Thank you for your heartfelt prayers for all those who are sick. We pray especially for John Cain, Patrick Hinder, Brian Fury, Justine Hocking, William Walton, Sabina Mason, Dominic Keogh, Brian Bickle, Rita Lawless, Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Mary Bradwell, Nikita Quinn, William Green and Bishop Emeritus Christopher Budd at this time. (If you would like to include a close family member in the prayers for the sick then please email the Parish Office.)

Parish Youth Group

In September we are looking to begin a new Youth Group in Newquay on Friday evenings. If you are interested in helping then please speak with Jodie.

If you are interested in joining then please let us know what you would like. Thank you.

CAR PARKING IN NEWQUAY IMPORTANT UPDATE and APOLOGY

We have now completed, in conjunction with our Health Safety review, the new lines in the car park. We have, as mentioned, lost 17 bays. We have now removed all the registrations that were previously on the system and have reinstated those who come to weekday Mass on a regular basis. We are still able to add parishioner's on a daily/weekly basis as needed.

Unfortunately, the new list of registration numbers we have recently added, have randomly had the start dates adjusted on the Parking Eye System, differing from what we had inputted. This has resulted in a small amount of "Parking Charge Notices" being issued through no fault of our own. If you have received one, please contact Jodie, and she will cancel it. We thank you for your understanding and apologise for any inconvenience this has caused.

Parish Office Hours

Jodie is available in the Parish Office from Tuesday to Friday and Sunday from 9am until 1pm.

Gift Aid & Planned Giving Envelopes

While we have a small number of Gift Aid Envelopes we encourage as many as possible to consider giving by Standing Order. Given that many of our banks have now closed and the challenges and additional expenses associated with dealing with cash, it makes our admin very much easier, less time consuming and less expensive. Thank you to those who give this way. If you are Gift Aided and have changed your address then please make sure we have your up to date details.

COVID - UPDATE

Thank you for continuing to wear face Masks during our celebrations. While we seek to move back to normal we still request, due to the continuing rise in cases, that face masks to be worn during our Masses. In doing this we support those who are still fearful, are being cautious and also recognises that some of our parishioners have not been vaccinated. You will appreciate we are keen to ensure that our Church is a place where people feel safe to gather for worship. Thank you for your ongoing support and for your selflessness with this matter.

Parish Pastoral Councils

Given the rich diversity within our extended parish and seeking to move forward, we are looking at establishing a local Pastoral Council in each of our communities. One of the main focuses, in Perranporth and St Agnes, will be looking at the buildings (including safeguarding their future) and what we would like to see taking place including social gatherings as well as church services etc.

Newquay - Kneelers & Pews

Please can you leave the kneelers down during Mass. For health and safety reasons, they are only to be lifted for cleaning purposes. Thank you.

Also, subsequent to the kneelers being completed we now have adjusted the pews so that there is a uniform space between them all. This has enabled us to introduce the blue upholstered chairs at the front of the church. Thank you again for your understanding.

Catholic Children's Society

Extend a Hand : Give Hope – Putting All Children First: the annual appeal of the Catholic Children's Society is next weekend. Please take a leaflet today or visit their website to understand the wonderful work, which the Society does to help struggling children and their families. Thank you.
