“Do not be afraid.”

A mother took her little baby to the doctor. “He won’t stop crying,” she told him. The doctor looked at her and replied, “All the Jewish babies are crying now.” The year was 1944 and German tanks were rolling into Budapest, Hungary. The anxiety gripping mothers was contagious and causing their little children to live in fear as well. Fearing for her child, the mother later gave him away to a stranger to look after for a month. This event caused the child to feel that he had been totally abandoned. As things turned out, mother and child survived and, in 1956, they made a new life in Canada. The child grew up and became a teacher, then a family doctor and then a psychologist. He became familiar with human pain and suffering, both in his patients and also in his own life and behaviours. He began to understand the root cause of our addictions in our suffering and in our attempts to overcome that suffering. Understanding trauma became his life’s great work. Trauma is not the event that occurs in our life but what happens to us inside as a result of that event.

An old man now, this doctor is the Hungarian-Canadian psychologist Gabor Maté. He has shared his knowledge and understanding in books and lectures and in online videos, helping us to understand better the meaning of our addictions, and of our struggles to be simply human. His teaching echoes the words of Jesus today: “Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear.”

“Do not be afraid” is a frequent and consoling saying on the lips of Jesus. He says these words to us because we are often afraid: very afraid. We fear the unknown. We fear what we cannot control. We fear what other people may think, say or do to us. We fear to have arguments with people. We fear losing their approval or their love. We fear illness and disease. We fear what tomorrow may bring. We fear death. There are so many things in this world to fear.

Simply being told not to be afraid does not sound like a remedy for our fear, but the Lord gives us a great reason not to be afraid. Someone is watching over you. Someone knows you very well and loves you for yourself. Every hair on your head has been counted. You are worth more than hundreds of sparrows. Jesus is telling us that we are not abandoned children. We are greatly loved by God, who is our Father. That is why we say the greatest words it is possible to say when we pray the Lord’s Prayer. We express our belief in God as a Father who cares completely for us. Our strength is in God our Father, and we are all his children. There is a family of God and we are members of it.

Prayers for the Sick

Thank you for your heartfelt prayers for all those who are sick. We pray especially for Pat Byrne, Peter Lambe, Deacon Brian Everall, Molly Taylor, Dominic Keogh, Heather Anderton, John Cain, Kathy Cain, Ann Cain, Patrick Hinder, Brian Fury, Justine Hocking, William Walton, Sabina Mason at this time. (If you would like to add yourself or include a close family member in the prayers for the sick then please email the Parish Office.)

Communion Under Both Kinds

From Holy Week we will be permitted to distribute Communion under both kinds. We are now, therefore, beginning to look to ensure we have Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist at each of our Masses to help facilitate distribution. We aim to begin redistribution of the Precious Blood of our Lord from the feast of Corpus Christi.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your prayerful support in enabling us to reach out to those people most in need. Thank you for your kind donations this week of £95.50.

An invitation to Survivors of Abuse

The diocese would very much appreciate hearing from people who have a lived experience of abuse, so that we can involve them in the work we are doing to support survivors. We would welcome the opportunity to hear survivors’ feedback and ideas so that we can improve our response to those who have been hurt by abuse. If you think you might be able to help us in this work, or if you would like to find out more about what we are doing in the diocese to support survivors, please contact: Sophie Scagell (Survivor Support Caseworker) on 01364 645436 or email sophie.scagell@prcdtr.org.uk

Parking Eye to Smart Parking

We have now changed the management company of our car park from Parking Eye to Smart Parking. New payment machines and signage have now been fitted. Please note that we have transferred the vehicle registration numbers that we currently have listed with Parking Eye to Smart Parking. There is no need to re-register your vehicles in the Parish Office. Thank you for your understanding and ongoing support with this.

Volunteers - Getting Involved Newquay, Perranporth and St. Agnes

Everyone in our parish community has something to offer and we value everyone's gifts, encouraging you to use your gifts wherever possible.

While many of our groups haven't got back up and running there are many ways you can still get involved in parish life. Examples of this are:

- At Mass where you might volunteer to be a Welcomer, or a Reader or be involved as a musician or sing in the choir.
- You might feel called to get involved in First Communion Classes as a Catechist.
- On one of our Parish Councils
- Helping in the sacristy.
- Care of the parish buildings.
- Social outreach through such things as CAFOD or Food Banks.
- Lead the Rosary or another popular devotion in one of our Churches.
- Kitchen Rota (in Newquay)

Feel free to speak Fr Martin or contact Jodie, in the Parish Office. With your help we can begin to re-establish many of the practices that we used to have prior to COVID. We thank you for your cooperation and look forward to speaking to you.

Second Collection - Peter's Pence

Please note that there will be a second collection for Peter's Pence next weekend 1st/2nd July. We thank you for your kind support.

Donations for Flowers

We thank Jan Miles who has been kindly arranging the wonderful displays of flowers we see in Most Holy Trinity every two weeks. If you would like to donate towards flowers in any of our Churches, then you can do so via our payment machine at the back of church or by a cash or cheque donation directly via the Parish Office or in an envelope to Fr Martin. Thank you for your kind support.

First Holy Communion

We pray for the children who are making their First Holy Communion at the 10.30am Mass in Newquay this weekend. Please keep them in your prayers as we celebrate this special day.

Second Collection - Day for Life

We thank you for your kind support and generous donations of £231.13 for the Second Collection for the Day for Life.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord is the strength of his people,
a saving refuge for the one he has anointed.
Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage,
and govern them for ever.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

Responsorial Psalm:

In your great love, answer me, O Lord.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word was made flesh and lived among us:
to all who did accept him
he gave power to become children of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

Communion Antiphon

The eyes of all look to you, Lord,
and you give them their food in due season.

Prayers for Ukraine

You are invited to join those who pray a public Rosary for peace in Ukraine at 11am on Lemon Quay, Truro (outside Hall for Cornwall) - every Saturday until further notice.

Give a Little

"Give a Little" card machines are now available in each of our Churches. If you are able we ask that you consider using these for the different collections. (Instructions of how to use the machine, including registering for Gift Aid, are found near each machine.) Thank you for continuing to bring your suggestions to us and for your continued support.

CCTV (Newquay)

CCTV has now been installed in Most Holy Trinity and covers the outside and main hallway. We were asked to undertake this by the Diocese further to our Health & Safety inspection. Part of our requirements is to inform anyone accessing the site. This includes via the newsletter as well as putting up signs.
