Readings and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First reading: Sirach 35:15b-17, 20-22b The Lord is the judge, and with him is no partiality. He will not show partiality in the case of a poor man; and he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged. He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan or the widow when she pours out her story. He whose service is pleasing to the Lord will be accepted, and his prayer will reach to the clouds. The prayer of the humble pierces the clouds, and he will not be consoled until it reaches the Lord; he will not desist until the Most High visits him and does justice for the righteous and executes judgement. And the Lord will not delay.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 34(33):2-3. 17-18. 19, 23. 7a

Response: The lowly one called, and the LORD heard him.

Second reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 Beloved: I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but also to all who have loved his appearing. At my first defence no one came to stand by me, but all deserted me. May it not be charged against them! But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: 'Two men went up into the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: "God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get." But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Communion Antiphon: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

For all those who have put their names on the Christmas Lunch list, can you please let Jodie know your menu choice with your payment of £26.00 if you haven't done so already. There are a few spaces left if you would like to join us, just let Jodie know as soon as you can so that we can notify Lakeside of our final numbers. Thank you.

World Mission Sunday

Many thanks for your generous donation of £332.08 for World Mission Sunday. Thank you for your support.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £41.50. The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

First Holy Communion Preparation

Having not had the First Holy Communion Preparation last year we are looking forward to celebrating this lovely journey as a parish. Fr Mark and the catechists are planning to hold 6 two hour sessions with the children on a Saturday morning beginning in January. This will involve all sorts of different activities and discussions helping us all to understand more and more how much Jesus loves us and wants to be with us. There will be a meeting on Tuesday 11th November at 6pm for the parents of those children who are hoping to be on the journey. More details will be shared then. See you there. There will also be Confirmation in the parish next year. This too will begin in January, and we plan to meet on a Friday evening, further details to follow soon.

Blessing of the Graves

Fr. Mark will bless the graves of loved ones in the month of November. We realise that there are 5 or 6 locations across our extended parish community where loved ones are buried but will initially focus on the cemeteries below on the following dates and times.

- † Fairpark Cemetery - Newquay
Friday 7th November 12.00 noon
- † Callestick Cemetery - Perranporth
Friday 14th November 12.00 noon
- † St Agnes Cemetery - St Agnes
Friday 21st November 12.00 noon
