Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon: Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9 The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout: 'The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!'

See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here.

They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Responsorial Psalm: 125(126)

Response: What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Second reading: Hebrews 5:1-6 Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord; anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52 As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

Communion Antiphon. We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Gilbert Allen RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Gilbert Allen who died on 23rd October, may he rest in peace and we remember his family in our prayers at this time. We will let you know the funeral details shortly.

New Lectionaries

You may well recall that twelve years ago we moved to a new translation of the Mass. Carrying on from that change, the Church, at the beginning of Advent, is introducing a new translation of the Scriptures that we are to use at Mass and this will involve changes to some of the readings themselves. As a result, every parish across England and Wales needs to buy a new 4 volume set for each Church. The price of each set is £695. This is therefore a sizeable amount of money across the 3 Churches which, of course, the parish will pay. However, if any individual would like to contribute to that overall cost, no matter if it be £5 or £100, please just place it in an envelope marked 'New Lectionaries' and hand it into the office. Please don't feel in any way obliged but I know some of you may well want to contribute as the Sacred Scriptures are so central to all that we do. Thank you so much. God bless you.
