“May they all be one.”

World Communications Day reminds us that before his ascension Jesus commissioned his apostles and sent them out to the ends of the earth to make disciples of all people, baptising them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Today we pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost to inspire us to live as missionary disciples, ready to share, in love and in word, the faith that shapes our lives.

In dioceses around the world, as part of the preparation for a General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops in 2023, over the last months we have been listening to the joys, hopes, sorrows and anxieties of one another about the Church we love. We have been invited to consider how we can become a more missionary Church in spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ so that we can reach out to those who do not know him and those who have walked away from their faith. Many people are thirsting to find a deeper meaning in their lives as well as a deeper peace. This is seen in the desire for retreats and pilgrimages, and in the interest in “mindfulness”. Some find pathways of spirituality but are not interested in the structure of the Church; they are suspicious of institutions. As the preparations for the 2023 Synod continue across the world, we are more aware of the Church in every country and our unity with the Pope as the successor of Peter. As the Church faces these questions, we are also invited to listen to and reflect with our Christian brothers and sisters with whom we share a common baptism and desire greater unity. We are called to journey and walk together so that the world may believe in Jesus Christ who desires to draw the hearts of all people into communion. He offers the water of life freely to all who come to believe in him.

The division among Christians is a scandal that damages the witness of the Church. Today’s Gospel is often used as a prayer for Christian unity, “May they all be one. Father, may they be one in us, as you are in me and I am in you, so that the world may believe it was you who sent me.” As we walk together towards a day when there will, we pray, be unity, we are invited to pray together and act together, especially in the service of those who are poor and weak.

The Gospel invites us to build our relationship with Jesus Christ and deepen it so that our love for Jesus mirrors the love between the Father and the Son. We can bring ourselves into the silence of prayer and know that Christ is with us. He is with us when we gather to worship him at Mass. He is closest to us in Holy Communion and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

In the horror of the scene of St Stephen being stoned to death, Stephen remains peaceful and trusts in God. Around him there is noise and anger; vicious people who throw the stones; Saul looking on and enjoying the death of another Christian. Stephen trusts in the words of Jesus that he is with him and prays, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit”, and “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” He forgives them from the depths of his heart.

Prayers for the Sick

Thank you for your heartfelt prayers for all those who are sick. We pray especially for Brian Fury, Justine Hocking, William Walton, Sabina Mason, Dominic Keogh, Brian Bickle, Rita Lawless, Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Mary Bradwell, Collette Thompson, William Green and Bishop Christopher Budd at this time. (If you would like to include a close family member in the prayers for the sick then please email the Parish Office.)

Gift Aid & Planned Giving Envelopes

While we have a small number of Gift Aid Envelopes we are encouraging as many parishioners as possible, who give in this way, to consider giving by Standing Order. Given how many of our banks have now closed and the challenges and additional expenses associated with dealing with cash, it makes our admin very much easier, less time consuming and less expensive. Thank you to those who already give this way.

Second Collection

World Communications Sunday

Please note that there will be a second collection next Sunday 29th May for World Communications Sunday. Thank you.

New Sound Systems

Over the last few months we have not only upgraded the sound system in Newquay but also in St Agnes and, more recently, Perranporth. This means that not only have we improved overall audibility but we now have, importantly, a fully functional loop system working in each of our churches. Thank you for your support.

Newsletter

If you have any items for the newsletter then please forward them in writing to the Parish Office by Thursday (at the latest) before the weekend when you would like the item to be included. Thank you for your support.

Deanery Meeting

We would like to thank Jim, Alice and Mary for the lovely meal prepared and served to our local Priests and Deacons at the recent Deanery Meeting.

Parish Pastoral Councils

Given the rich diversity within our extended parish but, nevertheless, seeking to move forward, we looking at establishing a local Pastoral Council in each of our communities. One of the main focuses, in Perranporth and St Agnes, will be looking at the buildings (including safeguarding their future) and what we would like to see taking place including social gatherings as well as church services etc.

If you have not already made your interest known to Fr Martin then please speak with him or with the Parish Office. Thank you again for your support with this. Together we can continue to make a difference in the lives of the communities we serve.

COVID - UPDATE

While we move back to normal we still request face masks to be worn during our Masses. This is out of a sense of support to those who are still fearful, are being cautious and also recognises that some of our parishioners have not been vaccinated. You will appreciate we are keen to ensure that our Church is a place where people feel safe to gather for worship. Thank you for your ongoing support and for your selflessness with this matter.

Safeguarding

It is the policy of the Catholic Church in England and Wales to report all allegations of abuse to statutory authorities, regardless of whether the abuse occurred recently or in the past, or whether the accused person is living or deceased.

If you are concerned about the welfare of a child or adult at risk, do not delay in contacting the police, using 999 if a child or adult is believed to be in immediate danger. Thank you.

Parish Photos

A few months ago a small number of parishioners shared with us a few photos of our churches from the past. If anyone has any photos of Newquay, Perranporth and St Agnes, particularly of the inside, then please could you allow us to scan them for our parish archive. Photos can be placed in an envelope with your name and given to Fr Martin. Once they are scanned in they will then be returned. Thank you for your support.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Entrance Antiphon:

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you;
of you my heart has spoken: Seek his face;
hide not your face from me, alleluia.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 7:55-60

Responsorial Psalm:

The Lord is king, most high above all the earth.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
I will not leave you orphans, says the Lord;
I will come back to you,
and your hearts will be full of joy.
Alleluia!

Gospel: John 17:20-26

Communion Antiphon:

Father, I pray that they may be one
as we also are one, alleluia.

Free Car Parking

Saturday from 5.00 pm – 8.00 pm and
Sunday 8.00 am - 1.00pm

For all other times, all visitors must go to the Reception to register your vehicle and avoid a fine. If you have any issues with Parking Eye please come to reception first.

Parish Finances Update

We are currently in the process of completing the end of year returns for the whole parish and have our next Finance Committee meeting planned. While there are some restricted funds that can only be spent on particular projects or churches the parish funds are intended for the use of the whole parish, wherever there is a need. If you see any particular needs then please bring those issues to our attention or mention it to your local Finance Committee member. Thank you for your ongoing support.
