Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Sunday Year B

Weekday Cycle II

*"The stone had been moved away
from the tomb."*

Most of us will have experienced some kind of disappointment, pain or failure - it is part of life and cannot be avoided. For some this will be the loss of a loved one, or the break-up of a marriage. For others it might be persistent ill health, a job they don't enjoy or financial hardship. Some may perhaps feel that life has been a disappointment, a series of small, exhausting setbacks and broken dreams. We all have our own crosses to bear. For the disciples, the crucifixion and death of Jesus on Good Friday must have signalled the ultimate dashing of all their hopes and dreams. They had seen him as the Messiah, the anointed one, the one who was to save them... and now he was gone.

But everything changed when Christ rose from the dead on that first Easter Day - nothing would ever be the same again. Without the resurrection the Jesus story would have been an interesting footnote in history - a miracle worker, a holy man, remembered with fondness and a little disappointment by his friends. As each of the apostles passed away, the memories would have dimmed and the "Jesus Movement" would probably have withered away, a few stories passed on to grandchildren perhaps and then nothing left but folklore - and then nothing.

The resurrection means that we can say "Jesus is alive!" in the present tense. He has conquered death, not just for himself, but for all peoples and all times. It enables us to say "He lives among us”, not a figure from history, but as a living presence - in the present. The risen Christ transcends time and space - he is available everywhere to everybody.

For the disciples, the resurrection meant that Jesus had fulfilled the promise he had made to them. He truly was the Son of God. He appeared to them in various places in the days that followed, enabling

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, ...who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, (All bow) suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed,
alleluia;
therefore let us keep the feast
with the unleavened bread
of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
