Fifth Sunday of Lent

Entrance Antiphon: Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless. From the deceitful and cunning rescue me, for you, O God, are my strength.

First reading.: Isaiah 43:16-21 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings forth chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: 'Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild beasts will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 126(125):1-2b. 2c-3. 4-5. 6.

Response: What great deeds the LORD worked for us! Indeed, we were glad.

Second reading: Philippians 3:8-14 Brothers and Sisters: I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers and sisters, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory. Even now, says the Lord, return to me with all your heart, for I am gracious and merciful. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

Gospel: John 8:1-11 At that time: Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the midst they said to him, 'Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. Now in the Law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?' This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, 'Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her.' And once more he bent down and wrote on the ground. But when they heard it, they went away one by one, beginning with the older ones, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. Jesus stood up and said to her, 'Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?' She said, 'No one, Lord.' And Jesus said, 'Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more.'

Communion Antiphon: Has no one condemned you, woman? No one, Lord. Neither shall I condemn you. From now on, sin no more.

Choir Practice (Newquay)

If you enjoy singing and would like to join the choir in Newquay, please come along to Most Holy Trinity on Wednesday 9th April after Mass for our next practice. All welcome

Gift Aid/Standing Orders

We thank those who have used Gift Aid Envelopes by way of giving over the years. We have now phased these out and would encourage you to give by Standing Order, which can also be gift aided. Thank you. If you are Gift Aided and currently do give by Standing order and have changed your address, then please make sure we have your up to date details.

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross will be held on 9th April at 6.pm at Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Flowers at Most Holy Trinity

On Holy Saturday we will see the return of flowers on the altar. We are also inviting parishioners (individually or as a group) to decorate each window sill for Easter with small displays of flowers too. If you would be interested in doing this, then please let Jodie know in the Parish Office.

Readers for Easter Triduum

We are looking to organise readers for this year's Easter Triduum. If you would like to read, then please give your name into the Parish Office so we can arrange our rotas. Also, if anyone would like to have their feet washed on Holy Thursday, please let Jodie know in the Parish Office.

Lent Zoom Course 2025

Parishioners are invited to join us via the zoom link below for the last talk for 2025 Lent Series. The talk listed below will begin at 7.pm, (the zoom call can be accessed from 6.45pm). We encourage you to come along and share the journey.
