“For where your treasure is,
there will your heart be also.”

Antiques Roadshow is a popular UK television series where people bring family treasures to be valued by experts in antiques. The expert encourages them to tell the story behind the object. What people are bringing is often not just an artistic treasure but the story of their family relationships, history and identity in a war souvenir, an engagement ring or a pile of love letters. Or it may be an ornament picked up in a market or auction as a bargain, sold by its previous owner for next to nothing. One person's junk is another person's treasure.

At the end of the interview, the expert comments on the object in terms of its antique or artistic value and then reveals its monetary value. Sometimes there is shock and amazement that an ugly old object that has gathered dust for years is worth huge sums of money. Sometimes there is disappointment that what was thought to be worth a fortune is, in fact, virtually worthless. But often the owner says that whatever the object's worth, they would not sell it because its value is beyond price. It holds precious memories of childhood, or of a beloved relative now long gone. Few people are prepared to sell what is precious to them in such terms. We cannot think of cherished memories of loving relationships or of our family sense of identity in terms of money, and this tells us something important about who we are made to be as human beings.

Most of Jesus' followers were poor people who struggled daily to make a living. His teaching on selling their possessions and giving money to those who were poor must have amazed them. They were poor, weren't they? So why not keep the money to support themselves?

The answer lies in what Jesus says about remaining alert and prepared for the coming of salvation. He is talking of where our heart truly is and therefore of where our deepest consciousness is. If our minds are entirely occupied with the attachment to things or people, that can betray a deep lack of trust, and we will have little space for developing a mind and heart in tune with God's vision for the world. Being a "cheerful giver" is evidence not only of generosity but of courage. It is evidence that our deepest hope lies in God and not in money, power or any other means of dominating our surrounding world. Pope Benedict XVI, in his encyclical on hope, Spe salvi, said that "the one who has hope lives differently". This Gospel is Jesus' invitation to us to live differently, with a different set of values that puts love of God and of others, and transformative action in the world, before the baubles of fame, power and fortune. We can live confidently and without fear when we have become free from all forms of internalised idolatry. An old song speaks of freedom being about having nothing left to lose. For Jesus, freedom comes from knowing what to set our heart on in order to live fully. Praying what St Ignatius of Loyola called the Examen, or Examination of Conscience, daily is a helpful way of recognising what is pulling us towards God or turning us away. It's about knowing where our treasure truly lies and building up our relationship with Jesus so that it is stronger than our fears.

Prayers for the Sick

Thank you for your heartfelt prayers for all those who are sick. We pray especially for Brian Fury, Justine Hocking, William Walton, Sabina Mason, Dominic Keogh, Brian Bickle, Rita Lawless, Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Mary Bradwell, Nikita Quinn, William Green and Bishop Emeritus Christopher Budd at this time. (If you would like to include a close family member in the prayers for the sick then please email the Parish Office.)

Gift Aid & Planned Giving Envelopes

While we have a small number of Gift Aid Envelopes we encourage as many parishioners as possible to consider giving by Standing Order. Given that many of our banks have now closed and the challenges and additional expenses associated with dealing with cash, it makes our admin very much easier, less time consuming and less expensive. Thank you to those who give this way. If you are Gift Aided and have changed your address then please make sure we have your up to date details.

COVID - UPDATE

Thank you for continuing to wear face Masks during our celebrations. While we seek to move back to normal we still request, due to the continuing rise in cases, that face masks to be worn during our Masses. In doing this we support those who are still fearful, are being cautious and also recognises that some of our parishioners have not been vaccinated. You will appreciate we are keen to ensure that our Church is a place where people feel safe to gather for worship. Thank you for your ongoing support and for your selflessness with this matter.

Parish Pastoral Councils

Given the rich diversity within our extended parish and seeking to move forward, we are looking at establishing a local Pastoral Council in each of our communities. One of the main focuses, in Perranporth and St Agnes, will be looking at the buildings (including safeguarding their future) and what we would like to see taking place including social gatherings as well as church services etc.

Welcome

We would like to welcome everyone during this holiday time who are visiting. We thank you for joining us in our Eucharistic celebrations and pray that you all have a peaceful and refreshing break.

Rosary

Our Lady Star of the Sea in St. Agnes pray the Rosary at 5.35 pm every Sunday before Mass. All welcome!

CAR PARKING IN NEWQUAY IMPORTANT UPDATE

We have now completed, in conjunction with our Health Safety review, the new lines in the car park. We have, unfortunately, needed to lose 17 bays. We will now be looking at removing all the registrations that were previously on the system and reinstating those who come to Mass and/or the Parish Office on a regular basis. In addition we are still able to add parishioner's on a daily/weekly basis as needed.

Boardmasters Festival (10th-14th August)

Our car park is full to capacity most of the time during the Summer months and we are expecting the same when Fistral Beach transforms into a surf village for the pro-surf competitions etc, on the above dates. Our car park will be manned on Sunday mornings from 8.30 am until 10.30 am to enable our Parishioners to attend Mass. Please note that we cannot do the same for the Saturday evening Mass at 6.00 pm and the car park may become very busy. Please allow extra time for your travel and parking.

Safeguarding Training & Safe Spaces

Safeguarding training is a vital part of helping to create safe worshipping communities. Any parishioner who takes on a role or ministry within their church that involves working with children, young people or adults at risk must undertake safeguarding training prior to their official appointment.

This is also the case for clergy, and during the most recent in meeting in Exeter we were reminded of Safe Spaces, a resource available to help support survivors of church-related abuse.

Safe Spaces is a free and independent support service, providing a confidential, personal and safe space for anyone who has been abused by someone in the church or as a result of their relationship with the Church. More information is available at www.safespacesenglandandwales.org.uk or by calling 0300 303 1056.
