Sunday 7th January 2024
 The Epiphany of the Lord

Sunday Year B
 Weekday Cycle II

“We saw his star as it rose and have come to do him homage.”

Three Kings we sing,
 “Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume
 Breathes a life of gathering gloom;
 Sorrowing, sighing,
 Bleeding, dying,
 Sealed in the stone-cold tomb.”
 Yet the cold of the tomb will give way to Christ’s glorious rising from the dead.

Twelfth Night is the night when people traditionally take down the Christmas trees and put away the time-honoured decorations for another year. It is a moment often tinged with sadness as families and visitors have now departed. Many decorations have stood the test of time and tell a story of a family, sometimes joyful, other times marked by tears. The missing Christmas cards record the stories of bereavement and lost friends. The Three Kings, who have been moving towards the crib, now take their proud place near Jesus, Mary and Joseph. This intimate scene is explained to children who wonder at the sight of the crib.

In the Christmas story, we discover our identity as a people who follow Jesus and are his disciples. The beauty of the scene at the manger captures the hope of the Christ Child and the joy that is proclaimed each Christmas.

The Magi bearing their gifts have followed the star that appeared as a mysterious sign in the night sky. They travelled from the East over mountain and desert. In their longing to understand the meaning of this twinkling light, they persevered on their hard journey through very long, cold nights and short days. Tiredness and weariness must have been part of Caspar bears the gold for a king, Melchior the frankincense for a deity, Balthasar the myrrh whose scent is already leading us towards the tomb at Easter. In the well-known carol We their wintry journey.

They enter the house of the Holy Family where they see the Child with his mother Mary and his protector Joseph. Their house has the welcome and warmth of a home that is full of love. They are offered hospitality in the Eastern custom. They bow low and offer their gifts to the innocent and fragile child who is utterly dependent on his mother and St Joseph. They pay homage to the new king. They see both a baby and a king. There is a poverty in the simple scene but also a richness, because the presence of the Christ Child fills the whole room. They recognise him as their God.

T.S. Eliot writes in his poem The Journey of the Magi about their homeward journey:

“We returned to our places, these

Kingdoms,
But no longer at ease here, in the old dispensation,
With an alien people clutching their gods.
I should be glad of another death.”

They know that their world has been changed and they no longer fit into the world in the same way. They are not sure what this will mean for their future. They begin to find the meaning of the Messiah who will save his people in the Jewish scriptures. They know in their hearts that this is the child they have met. All people have been sent a redeemer who will free them from their sins. He has been born in poverty in Bethlehem and will proclaim the coming of God's kingdom. The Magi learn that he will save all people by his death and resurrection and that they will have life in this world and eternal life in the next.

Christmas & Easter Collections

In a large number of parishes Christmas and Easter Collections are for the support of the ministry which takes place within the local Parish community and therefore go to Priest in charge. As such any contributions received for ministries and Christmas and Easter Collections etc go to the Parish with the parish priest receiving an allowance from the parish. This is the case here and those monies offset anything I receive. I therefore would like to extend my sincere thanks to you for your generosity and support, not only at this time, but throughout the year.

Safeguarding Forms

If you have been handed a Safer Recruitment or full DBS form recently, please complete them and return to the Parish Office. If you would like help with completing these forms then please ask Jodie or Aileen. Thank you for your understanding and support.

Fr Martin's Health

Thank you to those who have extended words of support in relation to Fr Martin's ongoing health concerns. Unfortunately, Fr Martin's health is still an issue and he did too much in seeking to celebrate all the Christmas services. He is aiming to focus on being able to celebrate the Sunday Masses and will not be celebrating any weekday Masses this coming week as mentioned. We will continue to keep you informed. Thank you for your patience, understanding and prayers.

Christmas Personal Thanks!

Given all that has happened over the last few months I wish to take this moment to offer my sincere thanks to all who have given their support and, especially at this time, for the many cards and kind words of encouragement.

I would particularly like to thank our Parish Team who have kept things going while I have been off. And I thank God for each of you at this special and joyful time.

Thank you and may God Bless you all!

Fr Martin
