Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Reading and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading: Wisdom 6:12-16 Wisdom is radiant and unfading, and she is easily discerned by those who love her and is found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her. He who rises early to seek her will have no difficulty, for he will find her sitting at his gates. To fix one's thought on her is perfect understanding, and he who is vigilant on her account will soon be free from care, because she goes about seeking those worthy of her, and she graciously appears to them in their paths and meets them in every thought.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 63(62):2. 3-4. 5-6. 7-8. ℟2b

Response: For you my soul is thirsting, O Lord, my God.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by the word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. Stay awake and be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Jesus told his disciples this parable, 'The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, "Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him." Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, "Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out." But the wise answered, saying, "Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves." And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterwards the other virgins came also, saying, "Lord, lord, open to us." But he answered, "Truly, I say to you, I do not know you." Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.'

Communion Antiphon: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.

First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion

For those parents and carers who are hoping for their children to celebrate these wonderful sacraments for the first time in the coming year, there will be an initial meeting to discuss the outline of the programme at 6pm on November 20th. The sessions themselves will begin in January but this will be an opportunity to find out a bit more about the programme as at that meeting all the details will be available. This will give you a few weeks, as a family, to decide whether you feel ready to make the commitment.

A Feast for all Peoples

As we prepare to set up our PPC in the Spring we are going to take a few weeks to reflect together upon the idea of 'Synodality'. Pope Leo says 'we want to be a synodal Church, a Church that walks, a Church that always seeks peace and that always tries to be close especially to those who suffer'. Synodality is about relationship, about authentic practices of listening and encounter even with those with whom we disagree or have little in common.

Synod comes from the Greek meaning 'to walk together'. It seeks ongoing conversion through shared encounter, listening, courageous speaking and discernment. Hopefully in the coming 5 sessions we will, by using the conversations in the Spirit and Lectio Divina learn more about ourselves, each other and God's plans for our parish family.
