Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Antiphons and Readings

Entrance Antiphon: You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

First reading: Isaiah 35:4-7

Say to all faint hearts, 'Courage! Do not be afraid. Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God; he is coming to save you.' Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy; for water gushes in the desert, streams in the wasteland, the scorched earth becomes a lake, the parched land springs of water.

Responsorial Psalm: 144(146):7-10 Response: My soul, give praise to the Lord.

Second reading: James 2:1-5

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest.' Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that? Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Speak, Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 7:31-37

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha', that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

Communion Antiphon: Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

Prayers for the Sick

If you would like to add yourself or a close family member then please email the Parish Office.

Parish Priest

We would like to offer a warm welcome to Fr. Mark Skelton who will be joining us next week as our new Parish Priest and may we support him in whatever way we can and pray that his time with us will be truly blessed.

We very much look forward to reopening Our Lady Star of the Sea in St. Agnes again for Mass as it was closed temporarily earlier in the Summer whilst we awaited the appointment of our new Parish Priest.

Fr. Mark will be celebrating Masses next weekend 14th/15th September at Most Holy Trinity in Newquay, Christ the King in Perranporth and Our Lady Star of the Sea in St. Agnes.

Fr. Mark is very much looking forward to reinstating the weekday Masses in our Parish as soon as possible. However, this is subject to which week day he will be allocated to celebrate Mass at Falmouth University, as their new Chaplain. As soon as this has been agreed, we will let you know.

Thank you

We would like to say a huge thank you to Fr. David Smolira who has supported our Parish over the Summer months and has enabled Masses to continue to be celebrated in Most Holy Trinity, Newquay and Christ the King, Perranporth. We are truly grateful for his support during this time. Thank you.

Poor Boxes

Thank you for your donations of £33.73 The funds raised enables us to reach out to those in need throughout the year.

Food Banks

We continue to collect for our local food banks in Newquay and Perranporth. Please place any food items in the box provided. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Second Collection

Please note that there will be a Second Collection next weekend, 14th/15th September for Evangelii Gaudium Sunday. Thank you for your support.

Sheila Kent RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Sheila Kent who died recently, may she rest in peace and we remember her family in our prayers at this time. Sheila's funeral will be held on Friday 13th September at 1.30pm at Christ the King Church, Perranporth.
