REFLECTION

Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year B

In today's Gospel Jesus heals a man who is deaf and has an impediment in his speech. Jesus takes the man aside, away from the crowd, he leads him to a place of quiet. In this we are reminded that Jesus wants a personal relationship with each and every one of us. He is not playing to the crowd. It would be easy for Jesus to announce what he is going to do and then perform the miracle in front of everyone and receive great acclaim in the process. He would surely get more people to believe in him.

With this as the backdrop for my first weekend with you all, I am really looking forward to getting to know you all over the next few weeks as different communities but also individually, as we continue to journey forward through what still are some challenging times.

As you might realise, I am still in the process of unpacking. But as we begin this new stage, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for making me feel so welcome since my arrival here a few days ago and thank you for bearing with me as I begin to unpack. Change can be unsettling for us all but, as the Gospel reminds us, the relationships that we create and build upon with one another and with God can lead to amazing things happening in our lives.

May God continue to bless you all.

NOTICES AND DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Please note that all Masses at Most Holy Trinity Church will continue to be celebrated in the Parish Hall. The reason for this is that the Church is having some major refurbishments. Mass will no longer be streamed online whilst Most Holy Trinity Church are having these works carried out.

Fr. Martin Stone will Celebrate Mass at Christ the King, Perranporth on Sunday 5th September at 4.00 pm and every Sunday thereafter.
Our Lady Star of the Sea in St. Agnes will continue to have Mass Celebrated on Sundays at 6.00 pm.

FACE COVERINGS MUST BE WORN FOR THE SAFETY OF US ALL

Even though the final phase of COVID restrictions has been lifted, we have made the decision to keep some of the previous restrictions in place over the Summer period as the Covid numbers here in Newquay are currently very high. We would ask you to continue to wear a mask at Mass under these circumstances, as highlighted by Public Health Devon and Cornwall. We will continue to have our Stewards to welcome you at the weekend Masses. We will endeavour to respect social distancing while in the Hall and we will continue to use a one way system where you enter through the reception door to the Parish Hall and exit via the back courtyard gate.

Please bear in mind these contingences are our decision for our Parish – other churches may differ depending on their local environment. You will still be required to give your name and contact number to our stewards for “Track and Trace” reasons or you scan the NHS QR code in the entrances to our Churches or Parish Hall if you have downloaded the NHS App.
