"Master, let me see again."

Above the main door of All Hallows College in Dublin, where many priests and church workers were trained, the following Latin words were chiselled into the stonework: Euntes docete omnes gentes, meaning "Go, teach all nations". These words inspired many newly ordained priests from 1842 until recent years to go and serve distant dioceses in far-flung places of the world. They founded parishes and built churches as pioneers of the Gospel on the west coast of the United States, in the remote territory of Western Australia in the nineteenth century, and built parishes in England, Wales and Scotland in industrial heartlands. From the mid 1990s onwards, lay men and women went out through the doors of the college to bring Christ in the service of love, often to those on the margins of society, and to proclaim the Gospel in the midst of their families and places of work. These people and priests would have understood themselves as "missionary disciples" to spread the Good News, following Jesus' command to go to the ends of the earth. These words, so loved by Pope Francis, describe the mission that comes from our baptism in Christ and is lived under the power of the Holy Spirit.

THAT I MAY SEE!

Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, sits by the side of the road as the crowds pass by. We see Bartimaeus today sitting in a doorway, or by a lamp post, with a paper coffee cup begging for pennies or needing to find a bed on which to rest. We don't know how Bartimaeus lost his sight, but he feels the loss and wants to see again. More deeply he wants to meet

Jesus because he recognises who he really is and that he can help him. He cries out from his heart, "Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me." Many people try to quieten him down and others walk past indifferently; a noisy person on the street is always a nuisance. Jesus hears him, spots him and recognises him as a person, a human being who is in need, and he speaks to him. He asks, "What do you want me to do for you?" When Jesus restores physical sight to Bartimaeus, he also receives the gift of faith because he gets up and follows Jesus along the road.

The prophet Jeremiah, in the first reading, writes of the Lord gathering the peoples who are lost back to himself. He comforts those who are weeping tears of sadness and sorrow; he consoles those who are desolate; he is a kind father caring for his children. He presents a vision of hope and joy when good days will return. Jesus fulfils the prophecy of Jeremiah because he brings about the kingdom of God where justice, peace and love are to be found. In that world, each person is equal and respected.

In the second reading, the writer of the letter to the Hebrews presents Jesus as the high priest who knows all our needs and is compassionate towards us. He knows the pain of internal suffering because he has suffered for us on the cross. As Jesus stretches out his hands in prayer to the Father, the Father reaches out in love towards each one of us and desires that we find our home in him and allow his mercy to touch our hearts.

We Welcome Bishop Mark

We welcome Bishop Mark to our Sunday 10.30 am celebration of the Eucharist. Bishop Mark, over the last few weeks, has been visiting the clergy that have recently moved parishes. We wish Bishop Mark every blessing as he continues his ministry in the Diocese, embracing Jesus' example of servant leadership.

Prayers for the Sick

Thank you for your heartfelt prayers for all those who are sick. We pray especially for Sabina Mason and Bishop Christopher Budd at this time. (If you would like to include a close family member in the prayers for the sick then please email the Parish Office.)

British Summer Times Ends

Please note that the clocks go back one hour on Saturday 30th October at midnight.

Parish Finances

You will appreciate that whilst the church has been closed during the pandemic, our overheads are still ongoing. If you would like to make a donation then please do so by a cheque payable to: PRCDTR Newquay, Perranporth and St. Agnes RC Parish.

Should you wish to contribute via standing order or Direct debit then please email Jodie on newquay@prcdtr.org.uk Of course, if you are a taxpayer, to Gift Aid your donation would be even more helpful to us.

We would like to thank all those who have already sent generous amounts and who have set up standing orders to support us during these difficult times. We thank you for your ongoing support.

World Mission Sunday

There will be a collection for World Mission Sunday on 24th October. Thank you for your support.

Margaret Bell RIP

We ask for your prayers also for the repose of the soul of Margaret Bell who died on Tuesday 12th October, may she rest in peace.

Church Renovations

We would like to update you on the progress of the renovations in our Church. Currently, the two main pillars in the church have been removed and the main structure/roof is being supported by 40 acrow props and various temporary steels. The main steels have not been positioned. We will keep you updated and are looking to have the church open again just before Christmas, subject to no delays. We will endeavour to upload some photos of the works completed to date on our website shortly.

COVID - Guidelines

Even though some COVID restrictions has been lifted, we continue to move forward with caution and keep many of the restrictions in place as the Covid numbers here are still currently high. We would ask you to continue to wear a mask at Mass under these circumstances, as highlighted by Public Health Devon and Cornwall. We will continue to have our Stewards to welcome you at the weekend Masses. We will respect social distancing and we will continue to use a one way system where you enter and exit.

Please bear in mind these contingencies are our decision – other churches may differ depending on their local circumstances. You will still be required to give your name and contact number to our stewards for “Track and Trace” reasons and you also scan the NHS QR code in the entrances to our Churches or Parish Hall if you have downloaded the NHS App.

New Parish Web Site

Our new site can be accessed using the web address on the front of this week's newsletter. We hope that over the next few weeks and months, with your help, assistance and suggestions, we can build upon this and help celebrate our wider parish community. Thank you for your support.

Parish Database Forms

No doubt many of you have completed our new Parish Database Forms over the few weeks, and have handed them to Jodie in the office. If you have not done this as yet, then please can I ask you to collect a form from the office, complete it and return it to the Jodie as soon as possible to enable us to update our Parish Database. Thank you.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9

Responsorial Psalm:

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world,
says the Lord; anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

Prayer for the Synod

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, ...who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, (All bow)

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.
