All Saints
Reading and Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon: Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First Reading: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14 I, John, saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea, saying, 'Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads.' And I heard the number of the sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel. After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, 'Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels were standing round the throne and round the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, saying, 'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.' Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, 'Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?' I said to him, 'Sir, you know.' And he said to me, 'These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 24(23):1-2. 3-4b. 5-6. ℣ cf. 6
Response: Such are the people who seek your face, O Lord.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3 Beloved: See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden, says the Lord, and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

Gospel: At that time: Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.'

Communion Antiphon: Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

A Feast for all Peoples

As we prepare to set up our PPC in the Spring we are going to take a few weeks to reflect together upon the idea of 'Synodality'. Pope Leo says 'we want to be a synodal Church, a Church that walks, a Church that always seeks peace and that always tries to be close especially to those who suffer'. Synodality is about relationship, about authentic practices of listening and encounter even with those with whom we disagree or have little in common.

Synod comes from the Greek meaning 'to walk together'. It seeks ongoing conversion through shared encounter, listening, courageous speaking and discernment. Hopefully in the coming 5 sessions we will, by using the conversations in the Spirit and Lectio Divina learn more about ourselves, each other and God's plans for our parish family.

Friday 6th November – 7pm
Friday 13th November - 7pm.
Friday 20th November – 7pm.
Friday 27th November – 7pm.
Friday 4th December – 7pm.

First Reconciliation
and First Holy Communion

For those parents and carers who are hoping for their children to celebrate these wonderful sacraments for the first time in the coming year, there will be an initial meeting to discuss the outline of the programme at 6pm on November 20th. The sessions themselves will begin in January but this will be an opportunity to find out a bit more about the programme as at that meeting all the details will be available. This will give you a few weeks, as a family, to decide whether you feel ready to make the commitment.
